

You can use the same story with different age groups or levels. Here are three very simple example stories, varying in complexity. Any picture story can be adapted in this way to suit the needs of different classes.

A picnic in the park

Sasha wakes up. She jumps out of bed. She has breakfast. Then she gets dressed. She goes to the park. A spaceship lands in the park! She sees an alien. They have a picnic. She goes home and goes to bed. She is happy.

Sasha wakes up. She jumps out of bed. Then she has breakfast. After that she gets dressed. She goes to the park. She plays on the swings. Suddenly a spaceship lands in the park! Sasha goes up to the spaceship. She sees an alien. She says "Hello". They have a picnic. Sasha goes home and goes to bed. She is tired but she is happy. What an adventure!

Sasha woke up. She jumped out of bed. She was hungry so she had breakfast. After that she got dressed. She went to the park. In the park she played on the swings. Suddenly a spaceship landed in the park! Sasha went up to the spaceship. She saw an alien. She said "Hello". They had a picnic. Then she went home and went to bed. Sasha was tired but she was happy. What an adventure!

A picnic in the park

