Tell your partner which clothes you wear?

When do you wear them?

in summer, in winter, for school, at the weekend, inside, at a party, at a wedding

Imagine you are going on holiday. Tell your partner what you are going to take (think about what type of holiday you are having – beach, skiing, sightseeing . Are you going to go out at night?)

In the clothes shop

Work with a partner. Read the dialogue and then swap roles. Try to really act!

Shop assistant: Hello, can I help you?
Customer: Yes, I'm looking for a T-shirt.
Shop assistant: What size are you?
Customer: Large.
Shop assistant: Here you are.
Customer: Thank you. Can I try it on?
Shop assistant: Of course.
Customer: Where are the changing rooms?
Shop assistant: Over there.

(Goes to changing rooms)

Customer: It's too big. Have you got something a little smaller?
Shop assistant: Here you are.
Customer: Thank you
Customer: I'll take it. How much is it?
Shop assistant: 7 pounds.
Customer: Do you take credit cards?
Shop assistant: Of course.

Work with a partner. Take turns to be the shop assistant and the customer and make up your own dialogue. Use the phrases below.

I'm looking for a/some

What size are you? Large Medium Small

Can I try it on?

Where are the changing rooms?

It's too big/small/long/short/tight.

Have you got something a little smaller/bigger/longer/shorter?

I'll take it.

Do you take credit cards?

Now cover up the box and see if you can remember the phrases! Try to make up a dialogue with your partner.
